Happy New Year!

This is the e-Bulletin from the Livermore-Amador Genealogical Society (L-AGS), provided monthly to our members. If you would prefer not to receive this e-Bulletin or other information, please send a message to <mailto:membership@L-AGS.org> and your address will be removed from our distribution list.

If you have a special genealogy or local history event or announcement you would like to see included, please submit via email to:

<mailto:bulletin.manager@L-AGS.org>.

Note: In the banner above is a photo of a statue from the Pleasanton Library called, "Girl Reading." This has a very special connection to L-AGS as it is there in memory of L-AGS member, Judy Person's daughter, Sarah Anne Lees (named after her 4th great-grandmother). It was sculpted by a Utah sculptor named Dennis Smith, as is the similar one of the girl reading to a boy.

TOPIC: What to Do with All Those Photos

GUEST SPEAKERS: Ted Shapas

DATE: Monday, January 11, 2016 – 7:30 p.m.

LOCATION: Congregation Beth Emek, 3400 Nevada Court, Pleasanton

Map to the Meeting Site:

A picture may still be worth a thousand words, but what if you don't know what the picture is about, where to find it on your computer, or how to archive it? Dealing with family photographs used to be relatively easy, but with the advent of digital media, things have gotten a lot more complicated. In this talk, Ted will address some simple ways to manage your image collection so you and your family members can identify, find, archive and enjoy these very important aspects of your family history.

Ted lives in Alamo with his wife, Barbara. They are both members of San Ramon Valley Genealogical Society, Barbara as Corresponding Secretary, Ted as newly elected President. Ted grew up in and near Chicago, IL, attended Roosevelt University (where he met Barbara) and got his PhD in Entomology, from the University of Wisconsin in Madison. Ted worked in R&D management in the consumer products industry for most of his working career. In his non-working career, he participates in fly-fishing, native plant gardening, traveling, and photography. Genealogically, Ted tries to figure out his Eastern European family history, a challenge since most of the records, if they can be found, are in languages we don't normally learn in school. Despite the obstacles and thanks to the internet, he's been able to trace his Lithuanian roots back to the late 1700s when his farming family lived in a tiny village in the northwest part of the country. Ted and Barbara visited that village a few years ago, and found some of his relatives still farming there.

COOPERATIVE EFFORTS

In an effort to provide the local area with the best possible resources and capabilities in genealogy, L-AGS participates in ongoing cooperative endeavors with several organizations.

LIVERMORE LDS FAMILY HISTORY CENTER

L-AGS is not affiliated with the Mormon (LDS) Church. L-AGS does however partner with the Livermore LDS Family History Center (FHC) for various non-denominational genealogical events such as educational seminars, guest speakers, indexing projects and special interest groups.

LDS facilities at their Mocho Street, Livermore complex are often used for these. Several L-AGS members, both LDS and non-LDS, volunteer as docents at the FHC. They are available to assist you in your genealogy research. The FHC has several subscription research sites not readily available elsewhere.

The Mocho Street FSC is open Mondays 9 a.m. – 3 p.m., Wednesday and Thursday evenings 6 p.m. – 9 p.m. and Saturday 1 p.m. – 4 p.m. For further information please contact the center at (925) 443-2750 during these hours.

HELP WANTED

Library Docent. Docent needed one Wednesday morning a month from 10am to 1pm. Contact the docent chair at <mailto:docents.chair@L-AGS.org>.

Oak Knoll Cemetery. The Oak Knoll Cemetery Project needs some help. Dick Finn and his cousin in England, Peter Kitchingham, are working on identifying all of the people buried at the old Oak Knoll Cemetery at the corner of Stanley and Wall St. in Livermore. This project will conclude with a book listing all these people and something about their families including photographs of gravestones where available. We have a listing of articles about these people in local newspapers. It would be a great service if a few people would take the time to look up and copy these articles for the project. Microfilm of the papers are at the Livermore Library and the Livermore Heritage Guild. If you can help please contact Dick at <mailto:rwfinn@yahoo.com>.

Person with a Scanner and Time Wanted! There are years' worth of L-AGS Board Meeting Minutes that could use some digitizing (to clear space from the Recording Secretary's home!). If you have a scanner and time, please let the President know at: <mailto:president@L-AGS.org>.
