This is the e-Bulletin from the Livermore-Amador Genealogical Society (L-AGS), provided monthly to our members. If you would prefer not to receive this e-Bulletin or other information, please send a message to <mailto:membership@L-AGS.org> and your address will be removed from our distribution list.

If you have a special genealogy or local history event or announcement you would like to see included, please submit via email to:

<mailto:bulletin.manager@L-AGS.org>.

Note: In the banner above is a photo of a statue from the Pleasanton Library called, "Girl Reading." This has a very special connection to L-AGS as it is there in memory of L-AGS member, Judy Person's daughter, Sarah Anne Lees (named after her 4th great-grandmother). It was sculpted by a Utah sculptor named Dennis Smith, as is the similar one of the girl reading to a boy.

Announcements:

All L-AGS Board Meetings will now be held remotely via Zoom on a permanent basis! This gives more of our members an opportunity to join the board. All other L-AGS meetings are currently being held via a remote platform and will hopefully be moving to an in-person platform in 2022. Please see meeting information for details.

GENERAL MEETING:

Blogging: Installment Plan for Publishing Your Family's Story

DATE: Monday, July 12, 2021 at 7:00 p.m.

Location: Remote Zoom

Speaker: Jacqi Stevens

Many people have ancestors whose stories are worthy of retelling, yet the task of publishing a family history book seems daunting. If you want to tell your family's stories, there is another, simpler route to sharing: creating a blog. Short for "weblog," the term "blog" represents an online forum where you can share your research notes and stories. A blog is easy to set up, easy to use, and often can be done for free. Learn about the options for setting up a family history blog, and the ways in which blogging can inspire you in your research and connect you with fellow researchers—maybe even the proverbial cousin with all the photos and family mementos to share.

While Jacqi Stevens claims she was born wanting to know about her roots, it wasn't until her college years when she actively began pursuing her family's stories. She is a genealogical researcher, writer of over 3,000 articles on her blog, A Family Tapestry, and educator in beginning genealogy, genetic genealogy, and blogging at the Stockton Institute for Continued Learning and other organizations. With a Bachelor of Music in Therapy and a Master in Public Administration, she served local governmental agencies for many years. Currently a principal at Summit Solutions Consulting, she serves as President of the San Joaquin Genealogical Society.

Board Meeting

The next General Meeting will be held via Zoom: Tuesday, July 27 at 7:00 pm. Please email <mailto:president@L-AGS.org> for the invitation.

June Board Meeting Summary

Members Richard Finn and Peter Kitchingham have published a book about plaques on historical homes and buildings in Livermore. Included is information on the buildings as well as the families who were living in or using them. The book, Livermore Plaques, can be ordered from Lulu Press:

https://www.lulu.com/search?adult_audience_rating=00&page=1&pageSize=10&q=Livermore+Plaques

Patrick Lofft, Roots Tracer Editor, is STRONGLY encouraging members to submit articles about their family research for publication in The Roots Tracer. He is happy to assist in developing the article (rootstracer.chair@L-AGS.org).

LIVERMORE FAMILY HISTORY CENTER

=== CURRENTLY CLOSED ===

Several L-AGS members, both LDS and non-LDS, volunteer as docents at the Livermore FHC. They are available to assist you in your genealogy research. The Mocho Street FSC is open Mondays 1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m., Wednesday and Thursday evenings 6 p.m. – 9 p.m. and Saturday 1 p.m. – 4 p.m. For further information please contact the center at (925) 443-2750 during these hours. L-AGS is not affiliated with the Mormon (LDS) Church. L-AGS does however partner with the Livermore LDS Family History Center (FHC) for various non-denominational genealogical events such as educational seminars, guest speakers, indexing projects and special interest groups. LDS facilities at their 950 Mocho Street, Livermore complex are often used for these. Note: The entrance is in the front of the building on the right—there is a sign on the door. If the parking in front of the building is full, there is a large parking lot in the rear of the building.

PLEASANTON GENEALOGY CENTER

=== CURRENTLY CLOSED ===

A L-AGS docent is available at the Pleasanton City Library by appointment, e-mail: <mailto:docents.chair@L-AGS.org>. The library is located at 400 Old Bernal Avenue in Pleasanton. The Pleasanton Genealogy Center, jointly supported by L-AGS, the Friends of the Pleasanton Library, and the Pleasanton Public Library, contains the largest collection of genealogy books, CDs and online databases in the Tri-Valley. Over 100 of the genealogy volumes may be checked out. Obtain information at the reference desk. The L-AGS genealogy reference book collection of 1,000 volumes resides in the Genealogy Section of the Pleasanton City Library. The L-AGS and the Friends of the Pleasanton Library provide access to the following subscription genealogy databases:

- Ancestry.com
- AmericanAncestors.org (formerly New England Historic Genealogical Society (NEHGS))
- Heritage Quest (in Library & at home)

LIVERMORE ROOTS TRACER NEWS

We are actively seeking articles and photos for the Roots Tracer. Some items we are looking for are short, entertaining updates about your current genealogy activities. Who are you researching? In what locations? What time period? What other genealogy related activities are you pursuing? Are you travelling? Indexing? Writing? Speaking? Instructing? Volunteering? Let us know. Please submit all articles, updates and columns to <mailto:rootstracer.chair@L-AGS.org>.

We welcome articles the following subject matter:

- Updated, previously published Livermore Roots Tracer articles
- Your Famous and Not So Famous Ancestors
- Overcoming Brick Walls
- Traveling to Find Your Roots
- Old House & Building Histories
- Family Heirlooms
- Technology Related Articles
- Book Reviews, Poems, and Photographs

Submitting Your Article

You can easily submit your article as an email attachment to L-AGS editor at <mailto:rootstracer.chair@L-AGS.org>. Articles should be saved in either Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx) or Rich Text format. Use footnotes to cite sources for facts that are not general knowledge. No need to worry about knowing how to cite history sources, our editors can assist you with this task. Photographs should also be emailed as separate files and labeled. Please include possible captions for each item. Photographs, when scanned, should be in either .jpg or .tif format.

Finally, feel free to provide a headshot and short bio (50-60 words) about yourself with an email address. Your headshot and bio will be placed at the end of your article so that members, readers, and unknown relatives can easily contact you.

Author's Rights

By submitting an article for publication in the Livermore Roots Tracer, you agree to grant the Livermore-Amador Genealogical Society one-time print publication rights, and the right to publish the article on its website in the

July 2021

Roots Tracer Archive. All other rights not expressly granted in this agreement are fully reserved by you. In addition, you acknowledge that you are the original author and are free to grant publication rights and that your article does not contain material that is consciously libelous or defamatory. Please feel free to contact L-AGS editor via email <mailto:rootstracer.chair@L-AGS.org> to discuss your article ideas or to answer any questions you may have.
