About the cover

Livermore High School class of 1896

Some information about the graduates of the class of 1896, pictured on the cover, can be found later in this publication in the chronological listing for year 1896. Much further information, given below, was found in the huge Heritage Families database compiled by Richard Finn. To query the Heritage Families database, or to contribute your information on early Tri-Valley families to the database, contact Richard Finn at <mailto:rwfinn@yahoo.com>.

John Joseph Aylward was the son of blacksmith and inventor John Aylward and Margaret Downs. John Joseph was a mining machine broker. He married Florence Dennis.

Laura Bradshaw was the daughter of Civil War veteran and carpenter Charles William Bradshaw and Henrietta Shekell. Laura was a grocery store proprietor and married Frank L. Macy.

John J. Callaghan was the son of farmer, miner, teacher, merchant, and sheep raiser John J. Callaghan and Margaret Moy. John Jr. became the first city attorney for Livermore. He married Ellen Brennan.

Lena Lucille Lotz was the daughter of farmer and saloon owner Henry Lotz and Laura Augusta Mohn. Lena was a teacher and later married John Daniel McLeod.

Lydia M. “Minnie” Rathbone was daughter of farmer Jeremiah P. Rathbone and Sarah Elliott. She was a school teacher in Pleasanton and later married Emil M. Schaad.

David Otto Rathke was the son of Karl Theodore Friederich Rathke and Emilie Johanna Adolfine Ludwigs. Otto was a teacher in Napa and Oakland.

Introduction

Over the years it has been suggested that members of the Livermore-Amador Genealogical Society might be interested in looking at any historical information that might have been saved in the library at Livermore High School. I was able to view the archives in the back room of the library and was disappointed at what little had been saved. What we did find that might be very useful is a listing of all Livermore High School graduates from the first class in 1893 up to the class of 1969 with a few gaps here and there. It should be noted that yearbooks from the present and going back many years can be viewed at the library at Livermore High School. Many older yearbooks are available at the Livermore Heritage Guild.

One pleasant surprise in this listing is that for the classes before 1928 someone has added information on marriages, occupations, residences, etc. for most of the graduates. This information should prove very valuable to those researching these early graduates.

A special thanks to George Anderson for using OCR to make digital records from the printed files at the library. A big thank you to Patricia C. Northam for retyping the pages that could not successfully be OCRd. Also a big thank you to Deborah Mascot for the attractive cover design.

We want to thank Stephanie Bogetti, the library media specialist at Livermore High School, for her help and encouragement in finding this set of documents.

If you have information on these graduates you would like to share as part of the Tri-Valley Heritage Families Project please contact me at 925-447-9652 or rwwfinn@yahoo.com.

Index

Index to all names in all lists. Note: For a given year, not all names are of graduating seniors; some are of spouses, parents, children and others mentioned in the Remarks column. Note also: Some lists were compiled many years after the year of graduation; for those lists, a woman may be mentioned twice: once under her maiden surname and again under her married surname. Researchers must make allowance for mistakes made by the compilers of the original lists, as well as mistakes made by the transcribers of the lists; the surviving copies of the lists are in some cases nearly illegible.
