Happy Family History Month!

This is the e-Bulletin from the Livermore-Amador Genealogical Society (L-AGS), provided monthly to our members. If you would prefer not to receive this e-Bulletin or other information, please send a message to <mailto:membership@L-AGS.org> and your address will be removed from our distribution list.

If you have a special genealogy or local history event or announcement you would like to see included, please submit via email to:

<mailto:bulletin.manager@L-AGS.org>.

Note: In the banner above is a photo of a statue from the Pleasanton Library called, "Girl Reading." This has a very special connection to L-AGS as it is there in memory of L-AGS member, Judy Person's daughter, Sarah Anne Lees (named after her 4th great-grandmother). It was sculpted by a Utah sculptor named Dennis Smith, as is the similar one of the girl reading to a boy.

TOPIC: Bring out the Pitchforks! Hunting the witches in your woodpile

GUEST SPEAKERS: Joy Cohn and Tom Mathews

DATE: Monday, October 12, 2015 – 7:30 p.m.

LOCATION: Congregation Beth Emek, 3400 Nevada Court, Pleasanton

Map to the Meeting Site:

<http://www.L-AGS.org/maps/Pls-BethEmek.jpg>

L-AGS members Joy Cohn and Tom Mathews have discovered that they are cousins but, better yet, have learned that their ancestors faced off against each other during the darkest days in Puritan New England's history. Tom and Joy will discuss the Salem Witch Trials, touching on the history behind the trials their causes, the executions and the families of both the victims and the accusers. They will also explore what happened to those families after the trials; where they went and what became of them.

Tom has been researching his family history for 19 years. He is the 8x great grandson of Rebecca Towne Nurse (pictured) who was hanged for witchcraft and the 7x great grandson of John Kimball who testified against Susana Martin at her witchcraft trial. Joy & Tom are the 8x great grandchildren of Nathaniel Putnam who was one of the signatories of a petition pleading on behalf of Rebecca Nurse. Joy's 7x great grandfather John Putnam, Nathaniel's son, signed the complaint that put Rebecca Nurse behind bars.

Tom is currently serving as the Membership Chairman of Livermore-Amador Genealogical Society. He is also a member of several other societies.

Joy became interested in researching her family tree after attending the Pleasanton Games in 2011. She has degrees in both Business Information Systems and Medical Assisting, both of which have helped her in her family research. Joy has been able to find letters of recollections from her grandmother to her brother, a family scrapbook started by her great-grandmother, a family Bible and other sources to create a rich history leading back to the Civil War, the American Revolution and the Battle of Hastings.

COOPERATIVE EFFORTS

In an effort to provide the local area with the best possible resources and capabilities in genealogy, L-AGS participates in ongoing cooperative endeavors with several organizations.

LIVERMORE LDS FAMILY HISTORY CENTER

L-AGS is not affiliated with the Mormon (LDS) Church. L-AGS does however partner with the Livermore LDS Family History Center (FHC) for various non-denominational genealogical events such as educational seminars, guest speakers, indexing projects and special interest groups.

LDS facilities at their Mocho Street, Livermore complex are often used for these. Several L-AGS members, both LDS and non-LDS, volunteer as docents at the FHC. They are available to assist you in your genealogy research. The FHC has several subscription research sites not readily available elsewhere.

The Mocho Street FSC is open Mondays 9 a.m. – 3 p.m., Wednesday and Thursday evenings 6 p.m. – 9 p.m. and Saturday 1 p.m. – 4 p.m. For further information please contact the center at (925) 443-2750 during these hours.

HELP WANTED

Library Docent. Docent needed one Wednesday morning a month from 10am to 1pm. Contact the docent chair at <mailto:docents.chair@L-AGS.org>.

Oak Knoll Cemetery. The Oak Knoll Cemetery Project needs some help. Dick Finn and his cousin in England, Peter Kitchingham, are working on identifying all of the people buried at the old Oak Knoll Cemetery at the corner of Stanley and Wall St. in Livermore. This project will conclude with a book listing all these people and something about their families including photographs of gravestones where available. We have a listing of articles about these people in local newspapers. It would be a great service if a few people would take the time to look up and copy these articles for the project. Microfilm of the papers are at the Livermore Library and the Livermore Heritage Guild. If you can help please contact Dick at <mailto:rwoffinn@yahoo.com>.

Person with a Scanner and Time Wanted! There are years' worth of L-AGS Board Meeting Minutes that could use some digitizing (to clear space from the Recording Secretary's home!). If you have a scanner and time, please let the President know at: <mailto:president@L-AGS.org>.
