

Livermore-Amador Genealogical Society

Presents ~

Anne Marshall Homan

You Are Invited

WHEN: Tuesday, April 8, 2014 ~
7:30 PM

WHERE: Congregation Beth Emek
3400 Nevada Court
Pleasanton

COST: No Charge - Visitors are always welcome

Hannam-Mansfield Ancestry

Anne Homan will tell us about her family lines of Hannam and Mansfield, which required a wide variety of research. Come join us to learn how you can apply research to your family lines.

Local historian Anne Marshall Homan has lived in Livermore for over 40 years. She earned her teaching credential and M.A. in English literature at Holy Names College in 1973. Anne taught at Livermore High School and retired in 1996. While retired, she has authored The Morning Side of Mount Diablo; Historic Livermore, California, A-Z; San Francisco Bay Area Nature Guide; Saiki about haiku poetry; and 2006-07 and 2011-13, the weekly column on local history for the Livermore Independent. Anne is a member of local historical societies as well as the Institute of Historical Study. Anne is hoping to write another book.

For additional information contact: Pat Northam, Program Chairperson, email:
program@L-AGS.org

