Searching Successfully to Reveal Your Ancestor's Story on Ancestry.com

This presentation will give you tips on how to use the Ancestry.com website to research your ancestors' lives. You will discover how to be more successful in your use of this website.

Recently Anne Mitchell completed the Boston University Online Genealogy Certificate course. She has worked in the internet industry in software for CNET, Webshots, and Excite@Home. Anne has a Master's Degree in Computer Science from Purdue University, where she also taught Computer Science for 8 years. Her passion for history and computers merged into a lifelong fascination of genealogy and developing advanced search techniques to carve important clues out of historical documents. Anne is a Product Manager at Ancestry.com and writes the Ancestry Anne column for Ancestry.com. Anne's website, Finding-forgotten-stories.com, has a wealth of information to help you in your ancestral research.
