A Century of Service

1914-2014

A Visual History of the Dublin Library

a special exhibition May 14-July 31, 2014 at the

CITY OF DUBLIN

HERITAGE PARK & MUSEUMS

A Century of Service

May 14 - July 31, 2014

Take a stroll down memory lane and see how the library has changed in the past 100 years. Do you remember card catalogs? Typewriters? Videocassettes?

Discover the behind the scenes history of library service in Dublin.

- Borrow a book from a reproduction of the garage library that served Dublin residents after the first library closed in 1948;
- Try your hand at alphabetizing catalog cards;
- Revisit Summer Reading Games from a generation ago.

On front: The first Dublin Library opened on May 21, 1914 in the Green Store.

Hours
Wednesday - Sunday
1:00 pm - 4:00 pm
Free Admission

More Information
Museum
(925) 452-2101
www.dublin.ca.gov

Location
Dublin Heritage Museum
Little Classroom Gallery
6600 Donlon Way
Dublin, CA 94568

Library
(925) 803-7252
www.aclibrary.org

Generously supported by:
City of Dublin
Alameda County Library
Friends of the Dublin Library
Dublin Historical Preservation Association

Little Dublin
April 9, 1966
8101 Vomac Road

Big Dublin
March 1, 1970
6900 Village Parkway

Deluxe Dublin
March 21, 1979
7606 Amador Valley Blvd.

Modern Dublin
April 12, 2003
200 Civic Plaza