Self-Publication Process

Come learn how you can preserve your research to share with family and friends. Jane Southwick and Debbie Mascot are L-AGS members. Jane joined L-AGS in 1996 and Debbie joined in 1999. Just like you, they had genealogical stories to tell and research to preserve. Each wrote a book, although each had a different focus and used different methods. At the meeting they will share how their books came to be. They invite you to create your own genealogical works. If they can do it, so can you!
