Preparing for a Research Trip

Are you ready to plan a research trip? This presentation will present ideas to help you prepare for such a trip and possibly avoid disappointments when you get there. Cat has had successful, and not so successful experiences doing research within the United States, England, Cornwall, Denmark and Sicily.

★ What to look for ★ Where to look ★ Correspondence with local resources ★ Money saving travel tricks

Cat Nielsen has been involved in her genealogy research since 1970. She is a past President of the Contra Costa County Genealogical Society, one of the organizers of the California Conference 2003, a past webmaster and board member for the California State Genealogical Alliance and a volunteer at the National Genealogical Society's Conference in the States at Sacramento, CA in 2004. She is a lifetime member of the California Genealogical Society, the California Cornish Cousins, and the California State Genealogical Alliance.

Besides research throughout the U.S., Great Britain, and Sicily, her Scandinavian research includes records research in Denmark, Norway and Sweden using online archives and microfilm at the Family History Library in Salt Lake City.

Cat has a BA in Geology from the University of California at Davis, and a MBA in both Marketing and Science & Technology Management from the same university. She received her certification as a Project Management Professional (PMP) from the Project Management Institute in Sept 2005.
